My wife & I decided to move. Initially we planned to rent, however, we found a house that we liked very much. George was recommended to us by a friend and was able to meet with us that night. He explained the process and what we should expect. George agreed to meet our real estate agent at the home. He arrived on time, and called me when he had left the building. The report was completed in advance. George was able to meet with us, and explain where he felt problems might develop. He also explained why he mentioned other areas. The report was very detailed and thorough. At closing the sellers even commented about the inspector we had hired. I highly recommend George Russell.

Thanks George, for your promptness and communication.
